WORSHIP SERVICE—EASTER SUNDAY

Please remember to put cell phones on silence or turn off electronic devices while in the sanctuary. Thank you.

The Announcements and Words of Welcome

The Prelude: The Strife is over the Battle Done
By Volpius; Arranged By Lani Smith

The Responsive Call To Worship:

Pastor: Out of the darkness of grief and despair comes a message of hope. Christ is risen.

Congregation: Christ is risen, indeed.

Pastor: We run to the tomb to see for ourselves. And it is true. Christ is risen.

Congregation: Christ is risen, indeed.

Pastor: We hear a voice call our name, and we know our risen Lord is with us now and always.

Congregation: Christ is risen.

Everyone: Christ is risen, indeed. Thanks be to God.

The Invocation

The Gloria Patri #813

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning. It is now and ever shall be. World without end. Amen. Amen. CCLI 176590

Luke 24:1-12

New International Version

Jesus Has Risen

24 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. ² They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³ but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴ While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. ⁵ In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? ⁶ He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: ⁷ 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.' " ⁸ Then they remembered his words. ⁹ When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. ¹⁰ It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. ¹¹ But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. ¹² Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.
