SCRIPTURE TODAY: Hosea 6:1-11; 7:1-16

6"Come, let us return to the Lord . He has torn us to pieces but he will heal us; he has injured us but he will bind up our wounds.

2After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will restore us, that we may live in his presence.

3Let us acknowledge the Lord ; let us press on to acknowledge him. As surely as the sun rises, he will appear; he will come to us like the winter rains, like the spring rains that water the earth."

4"What can I do with you, Ephraim? What can I do with you, Judah? Your love is like the morning mist, like the early dew that disappears.

5Therefore I cut you in pieces with my prophets, I killed you with the words of my mouth; my judgments flashed like lightning upon you.

6For I desire mercy, not sacrifice, and acknowledgment of God rather than burnt offerings.

7Like Adam, they have broken the covenant- they were unfaithful to me there.

8Gilead is a city of wicked men, stained with footprints of blood.

9As marauders lie in ambush for a man, so do bands of priests; they murder on the road to Shechem, committing shameful crimes.

10I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel. There Ephraim is given to prostitution and Israel is defiled.

11"Also for you, Judah, a harvest is appointed. "Whenever I would restore the fortunes of my people,

7whenever I would heal Israel, the sins of Ephraim are exposed and the crimes of Samaria revealed. They practice deceit, thieves break into houses, bandits rob in the streets;

2but they do not realize that I remember all their evil deeds. Their sins engulf them; they are always before me.

3"They delight the king with their wickedness, the princes with their lies.4They are all adulterers, burning like an oven whose fire the baker need not stir from the kneading of the dough till it rises.

5On the day of the festival of our king the princes become inflamed with wine, and he joins hands with the mockers.

6Their hearts are like an oven; they approach him with intrigue. Their passion smolders all night; in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.

7All of them are hot as an oven; they devour their rulers. All their kings fall, and none of them calls on me.

8"Ephraim mixes with the nations; Ephraim is a flat cake not turned over.

9Foreigners sap his strength, but he does not realize it. His hair is sprinkled with gray, but he does not notice.

10Israel's arrogance testifies against him, but despite all this he does not return to the Lord his God or search for him.

11"Ephraim is like a dove, easily deceived and senseless- now calling to Egypt, now turning to Assyria.

12When they go, I will throw my net over them; I will pull them down like birds of the air. When I hear them flocking together, I will catch them.

13Woe to them, because they have strayed from me! Destruction to them, because they have rebelled against me! I long to redeem them but they speak lies against me.

14They do not cry out to me from their hearts but wail upon their beds. They gather together for grain and new wine but turn away from me.

15I trained them and strengthened them, but they plot evil against me.

16They do not turn to the Most High; they are like a faulty bow. Their leaders will fall by the sword because of their insolent words. For this they will be ridiculed in the land of Egypt.

Mission Moment: Pray for Dr. John Costa. Bangladesh Field Director, as he provides care to patients and that there would be opportunities to witness.
