- Closing Prayer

Dear Brothers & Sisters at Carlisle First Church of God, Liz and I hope that you are having a great summer! We are sad we won't get to see you in person this summer, but we look forward to the next time we get to visit and update. We just wanted to take a moment to Thank You for your faithful prayer and support of our ministry to students with DiscipleMakers. It is such a privilege to share the gospel with young men and women on campus. In Christ, Brian & Liz (Parker)

PS: We recently found out that Parker Baby #6 is a girl. Reese is particularly excited to have a sister!

Scripture Today: Hebrews 6:13-20

13 When God made his promise to Abraham, since there was no one greater for him to swear by, he swore by himself, 14 saying, "I will surely bless you and give you many descendants." 15 And so after waiting patiently, Abraham received what was promised. 16 Men swear by someone greater than themselves, and the oath confirms what is said and puts an end to all argument. 17 Because God wanted to make the unchanging nature of his purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised, he confirmed it with an oath. 18 God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope offered to us may be greatly encouraged. 19 We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, 20 where Jesus, who went before us, has entered on our behalf. He has become a high priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.

Carlisle First Church of God, Little did I know when I began coming to our church what a loving family the Lord had in store for me. It has been a year since my cancer diagnosis and I need to thank you as you have continued to show your love by taking your time to pray, call, text, send cards and meals and visit me. Your love and care is such a wonderful witness to the world and I'm proud to share it with others. In Christ's Love, Eva Hogan

"Trust in Him at all times, you people, pour out your heart before Him. God is a refuge for us." Psalm 62:8
